What were the instructor's strengths?

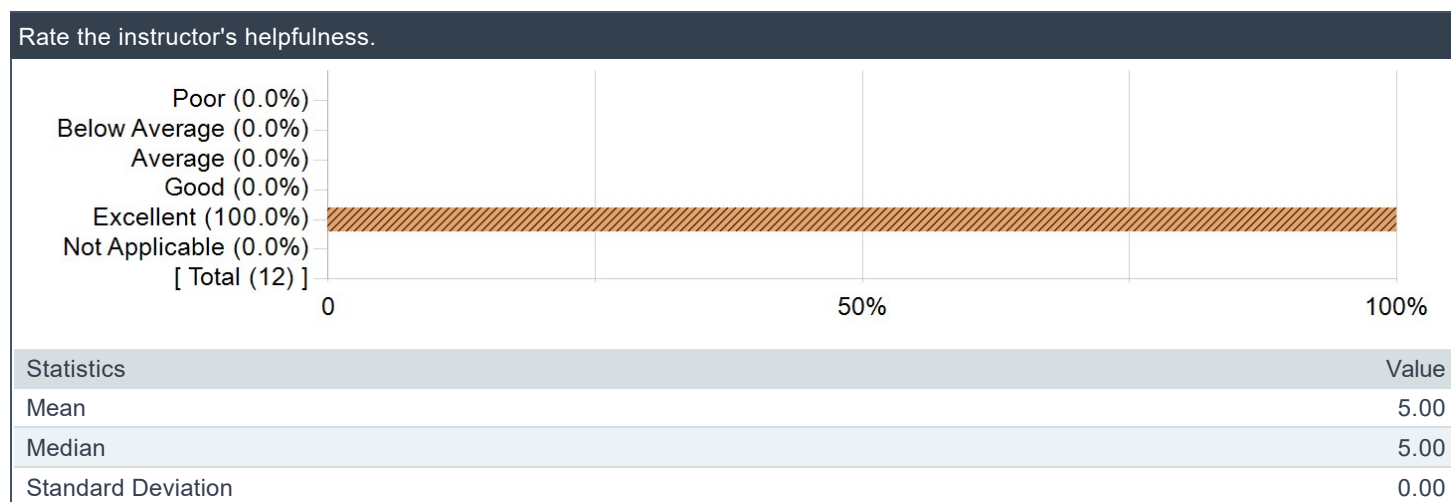

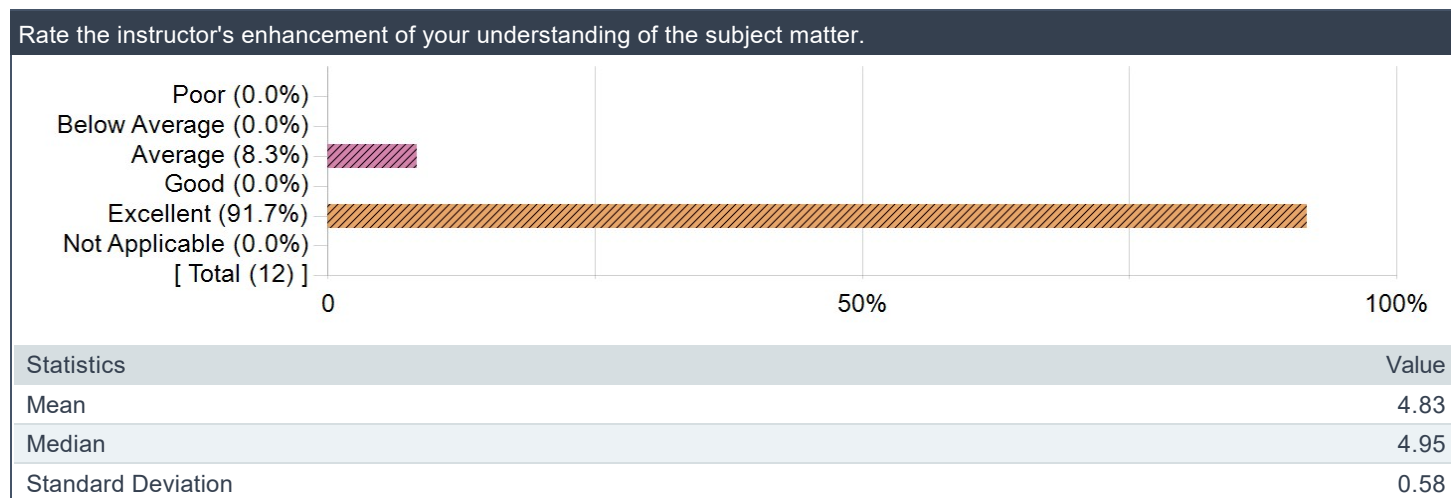

Comments
Dr. Cooksy is one of the best Chem professors I have had. He was able to teach this difficult subject in a comprehensive and palatable manner. I expected to absolutely hate this class, but I actually ended up enjoying physical chemistry. The way Dr. Cooksy taught the material has expanded my appreciation and love of chemistry, I truly valued and learned a lot from this class, thank you! :)
Great understanding of the subject, very willing and able to answer questions, understanding about students situations and outcomes.
Knowledge on topic
Really helpful. extremely passion with teaching .
Dr. Cooksy presents the material clearly and is very helpful when a student needs it.
dr. Cooksy is an amazing professor. He ties in so many real world applications to otherwise quite complex material. He is very personable, kind and understanding. He is sooo passionate about this class material and it really shines through in his lecture. He provides us with so many resources, office hours, practice exams, practice quizzes, ways to get extra points. I was nervous for this class but I only have him to thank for how successful I was able to be in 410A.
His patience and ability to make things sound easy.
very understanding of the intensity of a very challenging class
very caring and willing to help, made students feel important, interested in material Patience in explaining concepts.
Knows the material top to bottom and answers questions with examples.
He is very knowledgeable and wants to help the students succeed as much as possible. He is also very kind, and I love how he puts the lectures online to accommodate everyone.

In what ways might the instructor improve this course?

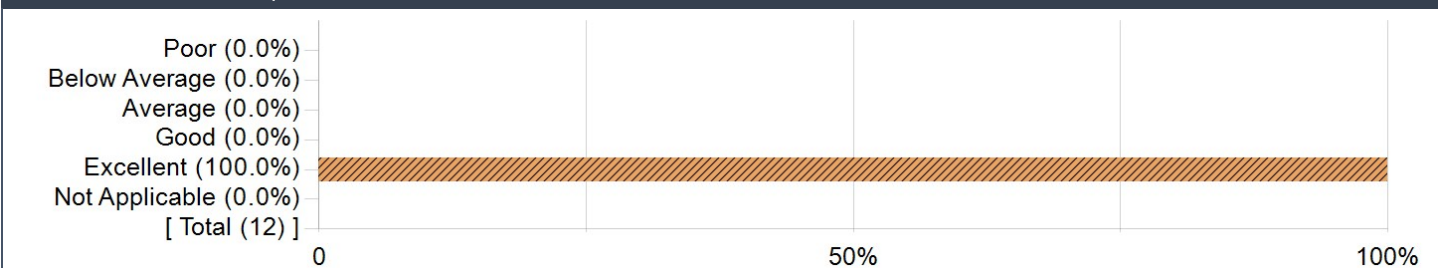

Comments
I think this class was taught extremely well. No notes
While the course lectures are recorded and uploaded, the course requires frequent examinations, which is understandable due to its difficulty, however complications studying for students with difficult schedules. That being said this may just be how this course has to be taught.
Too many exams not enough time
Can be more organize on course material and homework . Sometime, the material teach in class wasn't match with homework order
I believe the course is already optimized.
maybe extend the 20 minute exams to 25 minutes, but other than that I really have no critiques. He does everything in his power to help us succeed.
No way
my only problem with the course were the 20 min exams followed by lecture. I feel like if we do have the exams, we shouldn't have lecture afterwards
More step-by-step homework for better understanding.
More time on the tests. Only 20 min per midterm.
The instructor is so knowledgeable that sometimes it feels like he assumes we know as much as he does. He teaches all the topics in a well-paced manner, but it would be beneficial for him to go over the basics a little bit more.

SDSU is committed to the values of equity, diversity, and inclusion. Please describe whether the instructor created an inclusive learning environment where diverse students, particularly those from marginalized communities, were supported and welcomed?

Comments
Everyone was supported equally.
Yes. He has an activity on a short biography on scientific individuals that are of non–eurocentric background.
really respecting students. Always using professional pronounce when talk to student. Extremely humble person
Dr. Cooksy treats everyone the same way.
He is extremely understanding, I had to miss an exam due to health issues and he waived the exam. I felt extremely welcome in this learning environment and I feel it made me succeed even more.
dr cooksy made everyone feel welcomed
Yes, he is inclusive to everyone!
He absolutely created an inclusive and safe learning environment.
